DEFENDANT MOTION FOR DISCOVERY

Pursuant to C.M.C.R. 216, Defendant, who is representing him/herself, requests this Court to order the prosecutor to provide him/her with the following items, which are also known as "Discovery":

1. Police, arrest and crime or offense reports;
2. Books, papers, documents, photographs, video (including body worn camera video) or tangible objects held as evidence in connection with the case;
3. A written list of the names and contact information for the witnesses then known to the city attorney whom s/he intends to call at trial, including statements of all witnesses as they are defined in C.M.C.R. 216(d);
4. Reports and statements of experts, as well as any documentation associated with instruments used to detect and/or capture traffic or photo enforcement violations;
5. Any written or recorded statements of the accused, or of a codefendant, if the trial is to be a joint one, and the substance of any oral statements made to the police or prosecution by the accused, or by a codefendant, if the trial is to be a joint one;

6. Any material or information which tends to negate the guilts of the accused as to the offense charged, or would tend to reduce the punishment for the offense;
7. Any record of prior criminal convictions of the defendant, any codefendant if the trial is to be a joint one, or any person the prosecutor intends to call as a witness in the case.

Defendant requests that the prosecutor provide not only that material and information that is in the possession or control of members of his or her staff, but also of any others who have participated in the investigation or evaluation of the case, including, but not limited to, law enforcement or other investigative personnel.

Defendant also requests that if, after initial “discovery” is provided, the prosecution learns of additional material or information which must be provided to Defendant, they shall promptly notify Defendant of that additional material exists.

Defendant agrees that s/he is aware of the following information:

- a. The Boulder City Attorney’s Office has an open-file for “discovery” purposes in criminal cases. Defendant(s) may come to the City Attorney’s Office – Prosecution Division in the Boulder County Justice Center during regular business hours to review the file. Copies of documents contained in the file may be requested.
- b. Body worn camera video can only be provided by email. If Defendant does not have an email address, s/he will need to make an appointment to view the video at the prosecutor’s office.
- c. Defendant must tell the prosecution the nature of any defense which Defendant intends to use at trial. Defendant must also provide the names and addresses of persons whom Defendant intends to call as witnesses at trial.
- d. Defendant recognizes that s/he has a continuing duty to provide the information in paragraph (b) to the prosecutor. If, after providing the information in paragraph (b) to the prosecutor, Defendant discovers additional material or information of this type, Defendant shall promptly notify the prosecution of the existence of additional material.
- e. Any claim that the prosecution did not follow the Discovery Order issued by the court must be alleged in a separate, specific motion in a timely manner.
