

BOULDER MODEL LEASE

The Boulder model lease attempts to equally support the legal obligations and rights and responsibilities of landlords and tenants. It was created and reviewed by a committee representing multiple interests including landlords, tenants, attorneys, and others.

It is intended to be used in conjunction with the Landlord-Tenant Handbook, published by the Community Mediation and Resolution Center (bouldercolorado.gov/community-mediation-and-resolution-center). Throughout, sections of the Landlord-Tenant Handbook are indicated to guide users of the model lease to the corresponding sections.

Updated as of 4/26/24.

Any returned payment charge shall be a reasonable estimate of the administrative costs incurred by the landlord.

5. Legal Notice and Communication (See Landlord-Tenant Handbook, section Communication and Documentation)

Any notice required by law to be sent by mail by the landlord or the tenant shall use the following addresses:

Resident's Physical Address: The premises

Other:

Landlord's Physical Address:

Notice to one tenant shall be considered notice to all residents.

6. Security Deposit (see Landlord-Tenant Handbook, section Security Deposit)

Tenant agrees to pay the landlord the sum of $ _____ by _____ (date) in the form of _____ (method of payment) as a security deposit.

A. Under this section, any advance or deposit of money that is held by the landlord, whether termed last month's rent, damage deposit, or security deposit, will be subject to the payment of interest to the tenant. Simple interest per annum shall be paid within one month of termination of the lease or surrender and acceptance of the premises, whichever occurs last, on the full amount of the money held. The interest rate will be calculated in accordance with Boulder City Council Ordinance 7320 (Section 12-2-7, Boulder Revised Code 1981) which establishes interest rates each year. [City of Boulder on Security Deposit Calculation Formula]

B. Tenant may not use the security deposit in place of rent without the written permission of landlord.

C. It is the duty of tenant to return the premises, including any outside areas, yards or driveways required to be maintained by tenant under this lease, to their condition at the beginning of this lease, except for normal wear and tear.

D. Landlord shall return the security deposit to tenant within one month after termination of this lease or surrender and acceptance of the premises, whichever occurs last, unless a longer period of time for return of the deposit is specified here: _____ days (must not be more than 60 days). If actual cause exists for retaining any portion of the security deposit, landlord shall provide tenant with a written statement listing the exact reasons for the retention of any portion of the security deposit and the difference between any sum deposited and the amount retained.

E. A landlord may use resident's security deposit during the term of this lease to fulfill resident's obligations under this lease, but landlord is still obligated to follow the state laws regarding security deposits. Colorado Revised Statutes, sections 38-12-101 through 38-12-105 and 1973, section 38-12-101 et seq.

7. Eviction/holding over (see Landlord-Tenant Handbook, section Eviction and Eviction Prevention)

A. Landlord may evict Tenant from the premises or undertake other legal action to regain possession for non-payment of rent, lease violation(s) or substantial lease violations.

B. Tenant shall continue to be liable for rent and be bound by the other provisions of this lease during the time tenant remains in possession of the leased premises even though landlord has chosen to seek eviction because of resident's breach of this lease.

C. If tenant is evicted or the premises are abandoned, landlord is required to make reasonable efforts to re-rent the property. Tenant will remain liable for any loss of rent for the remainder of their lease term

D. Eviction procedures, including notice requirements, must comply with Colorado law.

8. Occupancy and Guests (See Landlord-Tenant Handbook, Miscellaneous)

No more than ____ persons may reside in the leased premises.

Tenant shall not allow guests to stay in or on the premises for more than _____ days per month without written consent of landlord.

9. Use

Resident shall use the premises for residential purposes only unless otherwise agreed in writing and allowed by law. Tenant shall not engage in any illegal activities on the premises. No short-term rentals are allowed.

17. Maintenance and Repairs (See Landlord-Tenant Handbook, Maintenance, Repairs, and Condition Issues)

Tenant will maintain premises in a clean and sanitary manner and will return the property in as good a condition as when it was received, normal wear and tear excepted. The tenant will promptly notify landlord of any damage, defect or destruction of the premises or failure of any appliance or equipment.

A. Notification for Non-emergency Repairs: _____
(Specify how tenant should notify landlord for non-emergency repairs)

Notification for Emergency Repairs:

(Specify two methods of communication tenant should use to notify landlord in an emergency situation that if not immediately addressed will result in further damage to the property.)

B. Repairs. Landlord must use due diligence to respond promptly to request for repairs and is responsible for the costs of such repairs unless the damages were caused by the misuse, negligence or abuse of the tenant, members of the resident's household, or guests. Rental units must be in compliance with the Boulder Housing code.

Tenant shall pay reasonable charges for the repair of damage to the premises or common areas caused by the misuse, negligence or abuse of tenant, members of resident's household, or guests (excluding normal wear and tear). Excessive damage to the premises by tenant, members of resident's household, or guests will be grounds for landlord to evict tenant.

C. Alterations to the Premises. Tenant shall not make repairs or alterations without written consent of landlord. This includes cosmetic changes such as paint, flooring, installation of items that cause holes in the walls or ceilings, changing door locks or altering landscaping.

Optional: List any agreed upon repairs, alterations, or cosmetic changes at the time of signing of this lease and date to be completed by:
